

Waiver of Liability

The undersigned, having sought counsel based upon biblical standards, hereby acknowledges his/her understanding of the following conditions. Second Baptist Church, its agent or employees, are hereby released from any claim(s) arising from the undersigned's participation in the care giving ministry.

- It is understood by the participant, that all biblical guidance will be provided by care givers, not licensed professional counselors.
- Caregivers are supervised by a State approved Licensed Professional Counselor
- All care giving is provided in accordance with the biblical principles as adhered to by Second Baptist Church, and are not necessarily provided in adherence with any local or national psychological or psychiatric association.
- No representation has been made, either expressly or implied, that biblical guidance, as conducted by the above-mentioned care givers is accepted as customary psychological and/or psychiatric therapy with the definition utilized by professional counselors.
- The State of Texas limits confidentiality.
  1. If an individual is a danger to himself or to others, a report must be made to an appropriate family member and/or law enforcement officials.
  2. If an individual reports abuse of a child, a disabled individual, or an elderly person, a report must be made to the appropriate law enforcement official.
  3. It is not optional for counselors to try to determine how lethal a threat may be before making a report. Reports will be made in compliance with Texas laws.
